

Pardon our Dust...

Currently, the bus garage that services our South County Bus fleet is undergoing major renovations. As part of those renovations, the bus wash facility has been taken out of service. We have recently found a private vendor that will be able to wash the fleet using portable equipment. Improvements in the appearance of our bus fleet should be noticeable soon.

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation during this period.

Happy Holidays,
- Fairfax Connector